Coming to Old National Events Plaza May 7 at 8pm

Tickets on sale Friday, November 9th at 10am

Evansville – See the legendary band Chicago, an American rock band formed in 1967 in Chicago, and now in their 51st consecutive year of touring! They have recorded 36 albums and sold over 100,000,000 records. Chicago at the Aiken Theatre on May 7. Tickets are $126, $90.50, $70.50 and $46 and go on-sale November 9 at 10am.

Chicago is planning a show this year unlike any other that they've done before. They will perform their historic album, Chicago II in its entirety as the first set of the concert.

While some artists have performed an entire record as their complete show, for Chicago, this will only be the first set before intermission. Chicago II, like their first release, is a double album, and contains the hits "25 Or 6 To 4," "Make Me Smile," "Wake Up Sunshine" and "Colour My World," the #1 song for weddings and proms for more than 40 years. The second set will be the "world's longest encore," as the band jokingly refers to it, filled with their greatest hits. This concert will be the band's longest show ever.

This year will also see some changes. Walfredo Reyes Jr. who has been touring with Chicago for many years as percussionist and is also an accomplished drummer, will take over on drums. Replacing Wally on percussion is his brother Danny, another in a long line of great musicians from the Reyes family. Canadian Neil Donell, who has been enthusiastically received as a guest vocalist with Chicago on occasion, will take over lead tenor vocals. On bass they will be joined by Brett Simons who has toured and recorded with numerous musical icons.

Chicago at the Aiken Theatre on May 7 at 8pm. Tickets are $126, $90.50, $70.50 and $46 and go on-sale November 9 at 10am.
